

CONTACT:

Catherine Hipp
Tourism Marketing Manager
Phone: (843) 986-5400, ext. 22
tourism@beaufortsc.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 5, 2008

BEAUFORT CHAMBER TO HOST MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY

(Beaufort, SC) – The Beaufort Regional Chamber of Commerce will celebrate the annual Military Appreciation Day May 17 at Live Oak Park in Port Royal. The area’s military will be recognized for their commitment to the defense of the United States and peacekeeping efforts around the world. All active, reserved and retired military and their families are invited.

Sponsored by Hargray and Tri-Command Communities, along with several regional businesses and area governments, local military and their families will be treated to a fun-filled day with activities, including face painting and carnival games. The Post 70 AMVETS will supply hamburgers and hotdogs! Music and drinks will also add to the day’s festivities.

The Beaufort Regional Chamber has hosted Military Appreciation Day for many years as one of several ways it supports the area’s military presence. It gives community leaders, as well as the public, the opportunity to honor and thank the area’s military. A number of elected officials, the Beaufort Regional Chamber’s Military Affairs Committee and members of the board of directors will also be present.

###

The Beaufort Regional Chamber of Commerce has more than 900 business members. The chamber plays a leading role in representing businesses and providing a common voice to bring concerns and solutions to local, state and federal governing bodies. Educational opportunities provided by the chamber are designed to enhance and support the growth of small businesses. The Chamber is the designated marketing organization for tourism to the City of Beaufort, the Town of Port Royal and the unincorporated areas of Beaufort County. The Chamber partners with a wide variety of non-profit organizations and businesses to market the hospitality industry and to attract visitors.

###