OSHER LIFELONG LEARNING INSTITUTE AT USCB NOW ACCEPTING REGISTRATION FOR SPRING CLASSES

BLUFFTON- The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at the University of South Carolina Beaufort is now accepting registrations for classes in the Spring term.

Spring classes begin January 28, and OLLI will offer more than 180 classes in a wide variety of subjects, e.g. arts and culture, ecology, finance, gardening, government, history, literature, music and science, just to name a few. Classes will be offered at sites at Pineland Station Mall on Hilton Head, the USCB South Campus in Bluffton, the USCB North Campus in Beaufort, and in Jasper County.

OLLI is a university-affiliated program has been in existence for more than fourteen years, and currently serves more than 1,100 members throughout the Lowcountry. OLLI conducts educational programs for adults. These not-for-credit classes have no entrance requirements and there are no tests. Everyone is welcome. Members take these classes for personal enrichment, and for the joy of learning.

For more information, call the OLLI Bluffton office at 208-8247, Hilton Head office at 208-8239, or Beaufort OLLI office at 521-4113. Or check the web site at www.uscb.edu under QUICKLINKS, click on "Osher Lifelong Learning Institute". The web site contains the Spring 2008 Curriculum Guide and complete information on each class.
